John Sister and Alexander Me Kesicher, of Jefferson; Harvey Bailey, of Ar-lington, and Henry W. Febrey, of Washington,

George R. Adams, e.q., re cleated by the Trastee Electoral Board a trustee for Ail naton District, for three years from the listiest., took, subscribed and filed the required oath, and Frank Hume, esq , elected for Jofferson Dis trie, filed his oath, but taking their sea's as members of the Board.

The minutes of the last meeting having been read and approved, the President stated that he had called upon the County Treasurer to make a report which he had not done, but was himself present to explain. Mr. Windsor then explained that Mr. Benj. Austin, who kept his books, had not the report resily, but would have it on Monday. He made a verbal statement of the receipts and expenditures, and answered a num-ber of questions as to the state of the school

Mr. Adams then offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted, viz: Resolved, That the County Treasurer make a full statement of the school accounts to the County Superintendent on or before Saturday next, and that before that time, he pay all outstanding warrants, according to priority of date, as far as the funds in his hands will allow. The Board then adjourned.

THE AQUEDUCT BRIDGE NOTTO BE SOLD -In the Equity Court of Washington yesterday a perpetual injuce ion was granted against the Pisi trie: of Columbia at the suit of the Alexandria Canal, Railroad and Bridge Co., exisining the sile of the Aqueduc: bridge, over which the Chesapeake and Onio canal passes, between the District and Virginia, for tix s. The attenny for the District took an appeal. Taxes of about $1,500 per annum were levied by the District on the bridge, amounting in all to $3.685 when the suit was brought, in June, 1875, and accumulating at interest sices. The ground of the exemption claimed was the provisions of the charter of the Chesapeake and Onio Caual Company, by which the bridge was built, that no tax should be levied on its works.
